The 25th Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon Increased quota of 37,000 marks good news for runners

HONG KONG, 12 December 2022 – The 25th Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon, which is set to take place on 12 February next year, has received good news for all runners! The total enrolment quota has been increased from 25,000 to 37,000. The Organiser would like to thank the Government and all parties for their full support and active coordination in making the race possible, as a further step along the path to a return to normality, bringing together local and overseas long-distance runners to achieve great results in this international sports event.

The newly-increased quota will be allocated to registrants on the waiting list who will receive a notification email this afternoon. Successful registrants will be required to settle the payment on or before 16 December to confirm their entry.
