Standard Chartered would like to remind the public that the above website and SMS are not related to the Bank. To mislead customers, the fraudulent website may appear under different domain names or with slight modifications or variations of the above URLs by adding a combination of letters, numbers or symbols.

The Bank would never include any URL in its SMS which requests customers to provide their logon credential or personal information. Customers should only access online banking services by typing the Bank’s official website address into the address bar of the browser. The Bank’s official website is www.sc.com/hk/.

If customers are concerned that they may have disclosed sensitive personal information, they should contact the Bank's 24-hour customer service hotline at (852) 2886 8868 (press 2 - 6 - 0) or report the case to the Police.
