Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon Carnival

With anticipation building, the public are invited to join the celebrations at the Carnival

HONG KONG, 9 February 2023 – Entering the final countdown for the 25th Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon (SCHKM), the Organiser is hosting a three-day carnival at Victoria Park starting today (9 Feb). This free-admission Carnival is open for the public to get an early taste of the celebratory experience the Marathon is set to bring to the Hong Kong community.

A special SCHKM history panel charting the development of the event will be featured. A display of all the finisher medals from the past 24 editions of the race can be found, taking the public on a nostalgic look back over the event's road to success over the years.

Amongst a host of Instagram-able moments, the Carnival will feature the welcome return of the 'Runners Wall' listing all 37,000 participants in this Marathon. Sponsor's booths will also be open to the public, where visitors can engage a wide variety of mini games to win special prizes.

The Carnival will be open until 3pm on 10 February. Everyone is invited and welcome to join and spend a celebratory Marathon weekend together.
