Standard Chartered and CUHK Medical Centre Establish Exclusive Strategic Partnership

Offering comprehensive health consultations for affluent clients, elevating exclusive privileges to selected Priority Private clients

26 January 2026 – Hong Kong – Standard Chartered Bank (Hong Kong) Limited (Standard Chartered Hong Kong) announced an exclusive strategic partnership with CUHK Medical Centre (CUHKMC) to provide complimentary comprehensive health consultations for Standard Chartered Hong Kong’s affluent clients. The services cover physiotherapy, Chinese medicine treatments, nutrition management, and family medicine specialties, along with a rich array of unique offers on health check-ups and designated vaccinations—addressing diverse health needs from prevention to treatment.

Eliza Law, Head of Affluent Segment & Distribution, Standard Chartered Hong Kong, said: “As a leading wealth manager for affluent clients, Standard Chartered is committed to offering one-stop banking services and unique experiences that meet clients’ evolving needs. With health and wellness increasing as a priority, we are pleased to become the exclusive partner of the CUHKMC and offer selected clients four complimentary consultations each year. By extending our services beyond traditional banking we are helping our clients enhance both their personal and financial wellness.”

Dr Chung Kin Lai, CEO of CUHK Medical Centre, said: “CUHKMC is committed to advancing public health because we believe good health is the cornerstone of a fulfilling life. Our partnership with Standard Chartered Hong Kong goes beyond disease treatment to include rehabilitation, disease prevention, and everyday wellness, reflecting our shared commitment to proactive and personalised healthcare. By bringing together our professional medical expertise and diagnostic capabilities, we aim to support clients in leading healthier lives.”

Standard Chartered Hong Kong has recently elevated exclusive privileges to selected Priority Private clients. In addition to the health services, the privileges also cover travel and lifestyle benefits, including access to first-class and business-class airport lounges, designated local and overseas airport limousine transfers, and the use of premium facilities and dining services at renowned private clubs in Hong Kong.
